

Developing Capacity to Deliver Culturally Sensitive Tourism in a Penan Community

Adjacent to Pulong Tau National Park, Sarawak, Malaysian Borneo

Akram Akbari & Dr. Lisa M. King

Where do the Penan live?

Galangayung,
Arur Dalan
Bario,
Kelabit Highlands,
Miri,
Sarawak,
Borneo, Malaysia

Adapted from: www.rangshomestayhandicraft.blogspot.com

Penan homes

Galangayung, A, B
& C

Arur Dalan,
Bario

Photo Credit: A. Akbari

Photo Credit: L. King

Photo Credit: L. Encharang

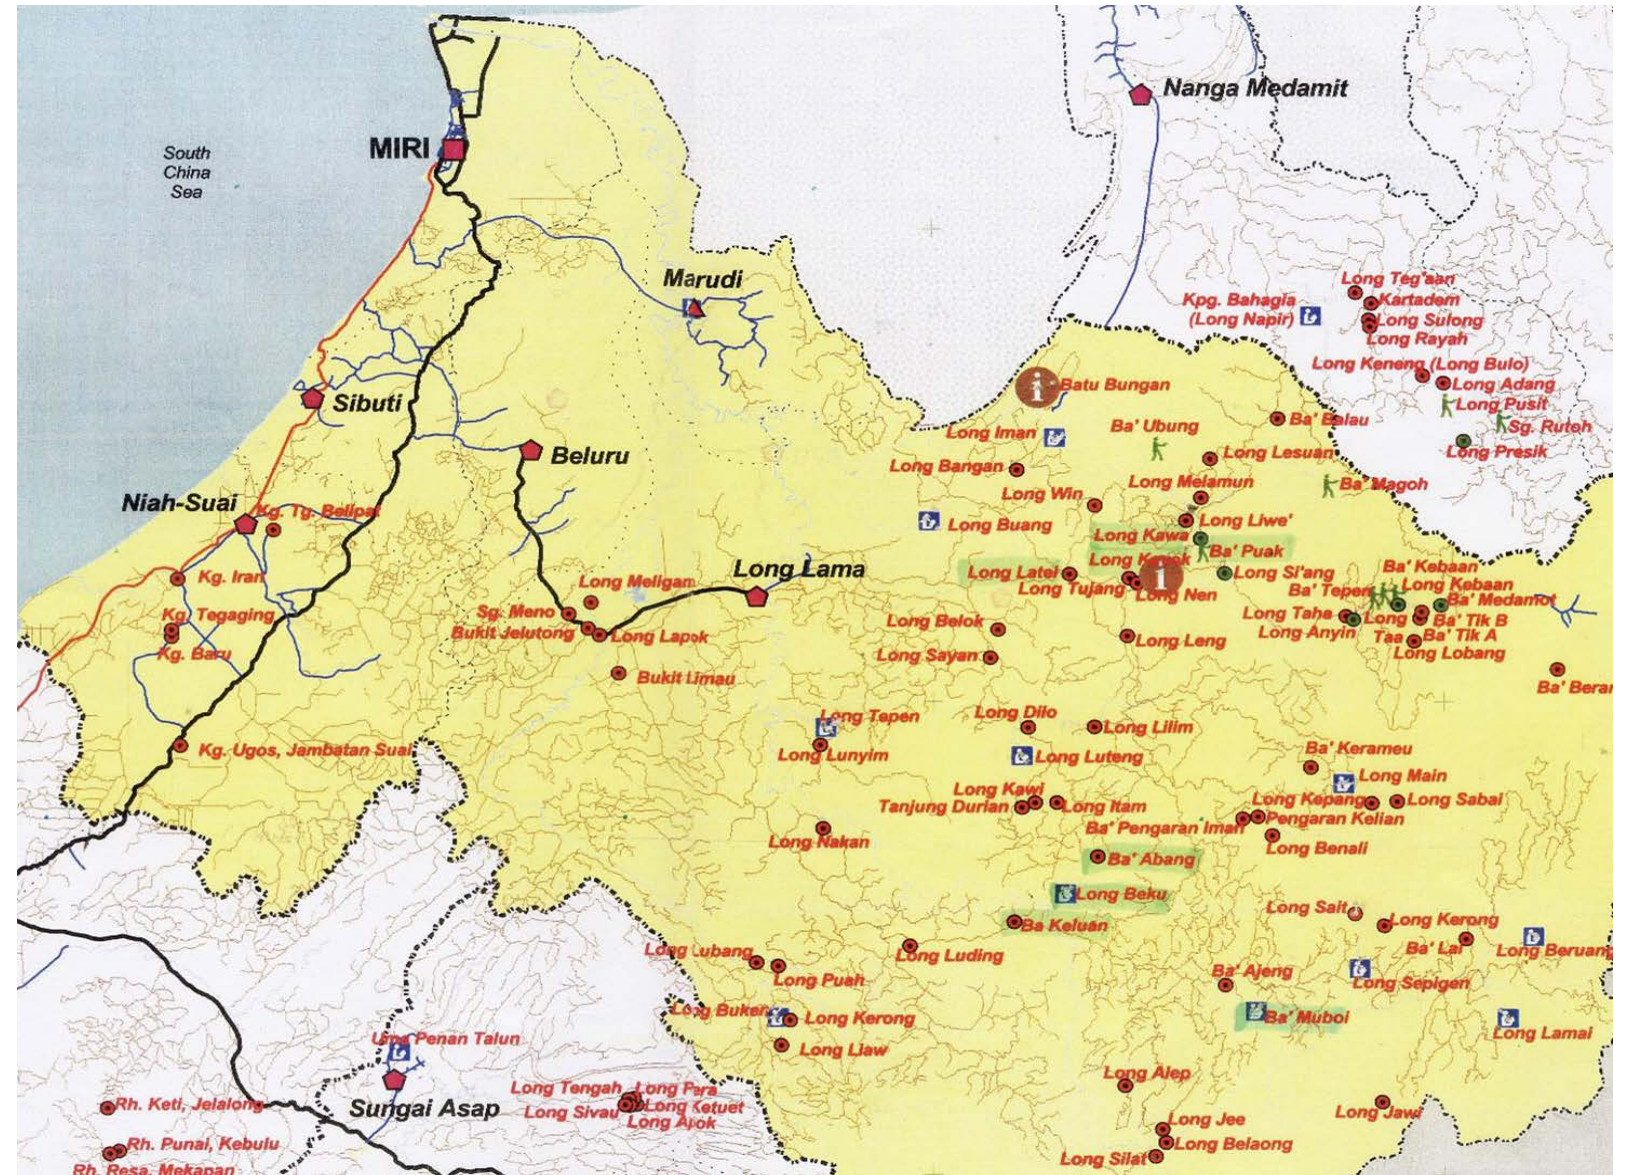

Photo Credit: Lian Lugun

Origins of community

Objective 1:

- Long Lubang,
- Pa'Tik,
- Pa'Ngaran,
- Long Iman,
- Selungo,
- Sungai Kubaan,
- Ba'Maddamud &
- Long Ramud

Adapted from: <http://www.pustaka-sarawak.com/>

Economics

working on the rice
paddies, breaking
rocks, in the houses,
hunting, and selling
fruits and leaves
from the jungle

Photo Credit: A. Akbari

The Penans are willing to have permanent job in tourism activities to earn same income for less hour work;

Photo Credit: A. Akbari

Common Wealth
Department and Labor Department
representatives 3
days investigation trips in Bario, the Kelabit Highlands

Photo Credit: R. Parance Balang

The Common Wealth Representative, Jeffre Nyian Jalong (The third from right) and Labor Department Representative, Lio Siang Yun (The first from left, Standing)

Opportunity

- Food Festival, Bario, the Kelabit Highlands

Photo Credit: Uding Maran

Q & A

Akram.akbari@postgrad.curtin.edu.my

akramakbari57@gmail.com